I was thinking ..... !

“IT'S NOT
HARD TO MAKE DECISIONS ONCE
YOU KNOW WHAT YOUR VALUES ARE.”

Dear Fallow Traveller,

Decisions shape your destiny. The average amount of remotely conscious decisions an adult makes each day equals about 35,000. In contrast, young children only make about 3,000 decisions each day. Imagine that we can direct our future and that of our loved ones by improving how we make decisions each day. Here are some open questions and how you answer will determine how you shape your life.

1. Who am I? Do I believe in a god?
2. What is the ultimate aim of life? Is it material goods, pleasures or peace?
3. What is the essential nature of this creation? What's it all about?
4. Can you accept things outside your control? Natural Laws, Truths?
5. Under what authority do I live? Is it feelings, thoughts, past, or is it words from the wise i.e. scripture etc.
6. What kind of person am I going to be? Write your own epitaph.
7. Do you view this life as a gift?
8. What am I going to contribute and take (learn) from this gift of life?
9. Wherein lies my happiness?

When we are born there was no manual with clear instructions on how to figure out what this life is all about. Some say that it's a journey of discovery and answers are easily found (seek and you shall find). While we are all made in the image and likeness of God we each bring a unique point of view or colour to life. When we share with each other this unique colour we stand to experience a wider and more colourful perspective of life itself.

Thoughts on Thursdays allows different views which we share in order to grow in appreciation of what life has to offer. This term we explore DECISION MAKING to enable us to choose more wisely and enjoy more fully this multi coloured world.

Unity, Peace, Love, Freedom, Joy is the aim.

All are welcome to join: then watch how your life may change forever (for the good).

Have a Wonder-full week.

F.K.

Unsuccessful people
make decisions
based on their current situation;
successful people
make decisions
based on where they want to be.
