- ◆ Construction Site: After nearly 80 years the roof on the Parish House is in need of repair/replacement. Work begins this coming Monday and will continue for about two weeks. It will involve Scaffolding around the house so Parking in the church grounds will be very restricted. Please use prom Car Parks if possible. We ask people to be extra careful around the Parish Office/house and not to trip over the construction paraphernalia. The cost will be met from "Rainy Day Kitty".

Salthill Parish is committed to the protection of all children and young people in our Church. See notice boards for contact persons.

Our Parish Profile — “Who we are.”

Dear Fellow Traveller,

As today is Shepherding Sunday I put together a few quotes from what Pope Francis is saying these days. Wonderful words of hope, love, tenderness and compassion. —

“Many of us, nowadays, seem to believe that a happy future is something impossible to achieve.” That is not true in either case—or so this old man insists. He speaks, yes, as a Christian, but also as a moral voice that history has wondrously lifted up. “The future does have a name, and its name is hope,” he said. “A single individual is enough for hope to exist, and that individual can be you. And then there will be another ‘you,’ and another ‘you,’ and it turns into an ‘us.’” Then begins the longed-for revolution, which Francis presumes to label “a revolution of tenderness.”

“Please, allow me to say it loud and clear: the more powerful you are, the more your actions will have an impact on people, the more responsible you are to act humbly,” he told them. “If you don’t, your power will ruin you, and you will ruin the other.”

“How wonderful would it be if the growth of scientific and technological innovation would come along with more equality and social inclusion?” he said. “Let us help each other, all together, to remember that the other is not a statistic or a number. The other has a face.”

“We all need each other, none of us is an island, an autonomous and independent ‘I’ separated from the other, and we can only build the future by standing together, including everyone.”

“We don’t think about it often, but everything is connected, and we need to restore our connections to a healthy state.”

Perhaps the most interesting part of his talk was when he told the Parable of the Good Samaritan. As the story goes, a man who was beaten and robbed was left on the streets to suffer. A Priest and a Levite, two influential people at the time, walked by the man without offering to help; but, when a Samaritan walked by, an ethnicity that used to be looked down upon, he felt compassion for this man and stopped to help him. Jesus allegedly used this parable to explain to people that being a good person means you have compassion for all, regardless of your status.

“Each and every one of us can become a bright candle, a reminder that light will overcome darkness, and never the other way around,” Pope Francis continues.

“Feeling hopeful does not mean to be optimistically naïve and ignore the tragedy humanity is facing. Hope is the virtue of a heart that doesn’t lock itself into darkness, that doesn’t dwell on the past, does not simply get by in the present, but is able to see a tomorrow.”

Have a Wonder-Full week,
F.K.
