PARISH NEWS

15th April 2018 2nd Sunday of Easter

OUR PARISH MOTTO: "CHRIST THE KING PARISH — A FAMILY OF FAMILIES"

Our Parish in Action New Ideas for 2018.

Parish Social Group

It was suggested to get a group of people who would be interested in getting together to partake as a group in some ordinary local outings e.g. cinema, concerts, plays, shows, visits or just coffee and a chat. Many say that they would love to go places and would love to go in a group. We are compiling a list of interested people so leave your details to the parish office.

Parish Library / Book Exchange

The Men's Shed have fitted shelving to the annex just inside the main front door. The project is being overseen by Sean Garvey and his friend Rob. They have already added some books to get started. Membership is free and the simple rule is that you bring a book to take a book. Should you wish to contribute some good books please drop them into the parish office. If you have many books contact Sean 086-0320674 or Rob 087-3991173.

I was thinking !

Dear Fellow Traveller,

Once upon a time in a small town, there lived a man by himself who couldn't see. He was blind. Yet, he carried a lighted lamp with him whenever he went out at night. One night as he was coming home after having a dinner outside, he came across a group of young lads. They saw that he was blind, yet carrying a lighted lamp. They started passing comments on him and made a fun of him. One of them asked him, "Hey Man! You are blind and can't see anything! Why do you carry the lamp then?!" The blind man replied, "Yes, unfortunately, I am blind and I can't see anything but the lighted lamp which I am carrying is for the people like you who can see. You may not see the blind man coming and end up pushing me. That is why I carry a lighted lamp". The group of lads felt ashamed and apologized for their behaviour.

Moral: We should think before judging others. Always be polite and learn to see things from others point of view.

Respect / the lack of it, is top of the news these days. Respect for women by men and vice versa, elderly, disabled, poor, environment etc. When a person shows respect for someone, it means that the person has value for them. Love is wonderful but respect is the glue that can grow lasting, connected and deeply lasting relationships. How we go about our life based on respect;

The best thing to give your enemy is - Forgiveness

- To an opponent - Tolerance
- To a friend - Your Heart
- To a child - Good Example
- To a father - Deference
- To a mother - Conduct that will make her proud of you
- To yourself - Respect. [Benjamin Franklin]

Probably too much has been said and written about the recent Alleged Rape trial in Belfast. There was obviously a lot of hurt all over the place. The maxim "Treat others as you would like them to treat us" is very valid. Many years ago my father reminded us as teenagers - "remember the girl you are "going out with, (Whatever that meant at the time !) is somebody's sister !". That's still true - respect for the other person needs to be put at the top of the agenda in our dealings with each other. Treating people as things diminishes us all.

Have a good week. - E.B.

"Treat people the way you want to be treated. Talk to people the way you want to be talked to. Respect is Earned, Not given"

Third Level exams are imminent and the Leaving and Junior Cert are not too far away. People are working hard.
