New Bishop Appointment for Galway

Bishop Michael Duignan has been appointed as our New Bishop, taking over from Brendan Kelly who is retiring , having reached the noble age of 75

A native of Athlone, Co Roscommon, Bishop Michael was born on the 15th July 1970. He is the eldest of six children and attended Cloonakilla National School, Bealnamulla and St Aloysius College, Athlone. He studied for the Priesthood at St Patrick's Missionary Society in Kiltegan, Co Wicklow and at the Pontifical Irish College in Rome. He was ordained to the Priesthood for the Diocese of Elphin on the 17th July 1994.

Salthill Parish is committed to the protection of all children and young people in our Church.
See notice boards for contact persons.

Returning to Rome to complete postgraduate studies, he then served at the Cathedral Parish, Sligo and as Chaplain to the Institute of Technology, Sligo. Subsequently, he completed Doctoral Studies in Dogmatic Theology at the Pontifical Gregorian University in Rome. He returned to Ireland in 2001 to take up the position of Curate in the Parish of Ahamlish and Innismurray in north Sligo and was appointed Diocesan Secretary before taking up the position of Lecturer in Religious Education and Theology at St Angela's College, Sligo and later Head of Religious Education and Chaplaincy Programmes. In 2014, he was appointed Chancellor of the Diocese of Elphin and Episcopal Vicar for Education and Formation. Bishop Michael was also National Director of the Permanent Diaconate and National Co-ordinator of Formation for the Permanent Diaconate.

He has been involved over the years in numerous adult faith formation programmes, training programmes for ministry, formation of catechists, youth ministry programmes and formation of school chaplains and teachers of religious education. was Chair of the organising committee for the visit of Pope Francis to Knock Shrine in 2018. He served for many years as Chairperson of the Board of Management of the College of the Immaculate Conception, Summerhill, Sligo.

On the 16th July 2019, Bishop Michael was named by Pope Francis as Bishop of Clonfert succeeding Bishop John Kirby. As a part the Episcopal Conference, he is a member of the Commission for Pastoral Care; Chair of the Council for Immigrants; Member of the Council for Pastoral Renewal and Adult Faith Development; Member of the Council for Finance and General Purposes and member of the National Training Authority for the Permanent Diaconate in Ireland.

So there will be one bishop for the two dioceses, Clonfert and Galway. Both dioceses will remain distinct and preserve their own identity but obviously there will be a lot of co-operation. It all adds up to a new era in how the church is administered and as we welcome the new man at the helm, we look forward with hope and enthusiasm.

Have a good week
