Ark Café and Friday Lunch Club

Due to concerns with rising Covid cases, we have decided to defer both the Ark Café and Friday Lunch club events until after Easter at which stage we will review the situation again. Whilst this is disappointing, the health and safety of our parishioners is paramount.

Senior's Lunch

On the basis that there is no change to current Covid health measures, we are planning to hold a Senior's lunch in Galway Bay Hotel at 1pm on the Friday after Easter, April 22nd. Main course, dessert, tea/coffee, wine. Music provided. Call Parish office at 091 523413 to book your ticket. Please contact us by 11th April as the hotel needs to know the numbers attending by then.

Special Collection for Ukraine

Special Collection for Ukraine: The Irish Bishops have asked for a Special Collection to be taken up at Masses this weekend 2nd/3rd April to support humanitarian efforts in Ukraine and especially the families and children who have had to flee their homeland in advance of the Russian invasion. The proceeds of this Offertory Collection will go to help those suffering in Ukraine.

The Collection next weekend, Palm Sunday will be for Trocaire. Trocaire asks for your help during Lent to fund lifesaving programmes around the world. Trocaire needs your support this Lent. Every donation, no matter how small, makes a significant difference.

Salthill Parish is committed to the protection of all children and young people in our Church. See notice boards for contact persons.

SCATTERED THOUGHTS !

Dear Fellow Traveller ,

There was a restaurant near a big stadium which was a good spot for a breakfast. On this day a customer noticed that a person came in when it was very busy and taking advantage of the crowd, after having eaten his dinner just left secretly without paying. The next day this concerned customer told the owner what she saw and in fact this man was back in the restaurant again.

On hearing the complaint the owner simply smiled and said “Let him go, We will talk about it again”.

As usual after eating his dinner the man looked around and taking advantage of the crowd he slipped away without paying.

The complainant was confused, and she asked the owner why he let him away with it. The owner replied “Like you there are many regular customers that have notice him and told me about him. This man sits in front of my restaurant and when he sees that there is a crowd, he secretly comes in and eat. I always see him but ignore it and never stopped him or never tried to insult him. Even more confused she asked “why so”? The owner smiled and said, “Because I feel that the crowd in my restaurant is in part because of this man’s prayer. He would sit outside and pray for the restaurant to get busy so that he could quietly come in, eat and leave. Of course there is always a crowd when he come in. I do not wish to invite misfortune by interfering between his prayers and God’s acceptance of his prayer. I am happy to let him eat and would never insult him or ask him to pay.

“Judge not and you will not be judged” Luke 6:37

Have a good week
