I was thinking !

Dear Fellow Traveller,

This morning I make an act of Faith, first Sunday of May, that Summer is night" !. "Isn't it lovely weather to be out in", people say, on warm Summer days and we hope we will have lots of them. "Lift up your hands and harden not your hearts" are words that are quoted often from the Bible, - I bet they were first spoken on a warm sunny day. Summer with its longer, brighter and balmy days invites us to lift up our hearts, and to be in tune with nature, which is vibrant in all plants and animals—all in full bloom, as it were.

The story is told of a pilgrim setting out on a long journey with his "Guru" - who asked him what the idea behind the journey was. The pilgrim answered "I am going for a bit of peace!. He was told by the guru "if you cannot find peace here, you will not find it there". What am I saying ? I suppose the question is - "Where do I find peace and what am I looking for anyway ?".

I invite you to take a journey or two into nature this summer. Take the car (or bus) out the country and sit on a rock and smell the roses. Take your shoes and socks off and walk in the grass. Maybe on such an occasion you might bring a friend and have a flask of tea and a few homemade egg sandwiches. Feel the energy and permanence of nature, rejuvenate your soul. We are part of something greater, something wonderful , Thanks be to God !

Have a good week. G.J,

The Referendum. Our new Bishop Brendan Kelly has this weekend issued a statement on the upcoming Referendum and we will refer to it at Masses this week at sermon time Hard copies are being printed and will be available later in the week. To my mind it is a pretty good , balanced presentation of the issues and we are encouraged to reflect on it and act . He encourages people "Not to be afraid" - "No phrase appears more often in the Christian Scriptures than 'Do not be afraid!' Above all do not fear being little and small, weak or vulnerable. It is this very weakness that calls us to a love that is real and deep and true, calls us out of ourselves, out of isolation and into community, into family". Is it not the very littleness and fragility of the baby that touches our heart and calls us to respond? Our disabilities and our wounds have a unique power to humanise us and bring us together to become a truly civil and civilised society. Surrendering to fear does not lead to either happiness or freedom, but rather to isolation and conflict. The constant call of God/Love is 'Do not be afraid'.
