Achoo !

In this season of colds, flus and infections, if somebody prefers to greet you at the Sign of Peace with a smile and bow rather than a handshake please reciprocate in a like manner. They are not being uncivil. It may be because they do not want to pass on an infection or are afraid of the consequences of one. The important thing is that we support, care about and respect one another..

I was thinking !

Dear Fellow Traveller,

The Christmas season has come and gone once again and we are slowly returning to a sense of normality. Driving through Salthill earlier this week the swift transition from the festive season to the ordinariness of January was very evident. Thankfully too we can now go shopping without The Pogues, the rush, the push and the stress. While the Church's liturgical calendar returns to Ordinary Time, and we face together the reality of 2019, a secret lays hidden within our attics and garden sheds. Deep inside them lie our Christmas decorations waiting in anticipation until their next showcase.

The grace and blessing of Christmas did not disappear on the sixth of January and the presence of God did not go home with the Shepherds or the Three Wise Men. His presence continues to remain deep within our souls. It is important for us to continue to reflect upon Christ's journey and to learn from the Christmas message. So we should continue to ponder and reflect, to listen to Him and invite Him into our lives afresh. Allow Him to journey with us in the highs and lows of this New Year. There was once an ad on television that reminded us that 'Puppies aren't just for Christmas'. Well Christ isn't just for Christmas either.

He is for yesterday, for today and forever.

Have a great week everybody,

J.G.A.
