I was thinking ..... !

Dear Fellow Traveller,

Fear is a constant factor in all our lives. Fear of the dark, fear of the unknown, fear of loneliness, fear of failure, fear of not being accepted by our peers and age group, fear of commitment, fear of the future, fear of serious illness, fear of poverty, fear of being rejected, and of course the ultimate one - fear of death. Fear is inhibiting, it stifles our growth, makes us freeze up. The Bible talks about being held in slavery all our lives by fear.

However there is a further and more deep seated fear in all of us: the fear of life; a fear of growth, a fear of trust, a fear of revealing too much; a fear not of darkness but of light. "Our deepest fear is not that we are inadequate but that we are powerful beyond measure. It is our light not our darkness that frightens us most. We are born to manifest the glory of God that is within us".

[Nelson Mandela]

If we are to reach anything like our potential we must let our light shine, we must let the ability and the goodness that is in us flourish and grow. As we begin Spring and the buds begin to put their heads above the ground perhaps we need to take our courage in our hands and have another go of conquering whatever our individual fear is and letting the light shine.

Have a good week

G.J.
