I was thinking !

Dear Fellow Traveller,

Found this reflective piece by Khalil Gibran — Put me thinking !

“And an old priest said, Speak to us of Religion. And he said:

Have I spoken this day of aught else? Is not religion all deeds and all reflection, And that which is neither deed nor reflection, but a wonder and a surprise ever springing in their souls, even while their hands hew their stone or tend their loom?

Who can separate their faith from their actions, or their belief from their occupations? Who can spread their hours before them, saying, "This for God and this for myself; This for my soul and this other for my body"?

All your hours are wings that beat through space from self to self. They who wears their mortality but as his best garment were better naked.

And they who defines their conduct by ethics imprisons their song-bird in a cage.. The freest song comes not through bars and wires. And they to whom worshiping is a window, to open but also to shut, has not yet visited the house of their soul whose windows are from dawn to dawn.

Your daily life is your temple and your religion. Whenever you enter into it take with you your all. Take the plough and the forge and the mallet and the lute,

The things you have fashioned in necessity or for delight. For in reverie you cannot rise above your achievements nor fall lower than your failures. And take with you all men: For in adoration you cannot fly than their than hopes nor humble yourself lower than their despair.

And if you would know God, be not therefore a solver of riddles. Rather look about you and you shall see Him playing with your children. And look into space; you shall see Him walking in the cloud, outstretching His arms in the lightning and descending in rain. You shall see Him smiling in flowers, then rising and waving His hands in trees.”

Have a good week - G.J.
