Fr. Michael Bailey O.F.M., C.C. formally retires at the end of this week.

He's a native of Dalkey, Co Dublin. Ordained 1963. Served in Cork and Brussels prior to coming to Galway as Chaplain to the university in 1987. Has worked in the Galway diocese ministering in Oughterard prior to coming to Salthill in 2004 .

Being "retired" doesn't mean he won't be working. We are glad to say that he intends to reside with us here in Salthill and will continue to be involved in ministry. Being retired will hopefully mean he will have a little more time for himself.

We sincerely thank him for his hard work and service over a lot of years and we wish him good health, happiness and continued fulfilment for years and years to come. More Anon.

Salthill Parish is committed to the protection of all children and young people in our Church. See notice boards for contact persons.

I was thinking !

Dear Fellow Traveller,

A little bit of the fabric of old Salthill disappeared during the week with the knocking down of the old shell of the Warwick Hotel. Passing by you can now see the sky. If the walls could talk there would be a feast of stories about Holiday makers, Discos. Wedding Receptions. Old Time Waltzes, Showbands, Private and Business Functions, Family Parties, and so on. The site is being cleared to make way for the building of a new Nursing Home which I trust will serve the needs of Salthill in an equally good fashion though in a different manner as the old building. For time moves on and nothing in life stands still and we are all moving on.

I couple the passing of the Warwick with the going to school for the first time of a generation of 4/5s olds. Every generation lives in it's own time. Life is ever changing and we either go with it, embracing each day with it's own challenges and opportunities or resist changes until we eventually crumble.

My First Day At School

A millionbillionwillion miles from home
Waiting for the bell to go. (To go where?)

Why are they all so big, other children? So noisy?

So much at home they Must have been born in the school uniform

Lived all their lives in playgrounds

Spent the years inventing games That don't let me in.

Games that are rough, that swallow you up.

And the railings. All around, the railings.

Are they to keep out wolves and monsters?

Things that carry off and eat children? G.J.

Things you don't take sweets from?

Perhaps they're to stop us getting out

Running away from the "lessins". "Less-in".

What does a lessin look like?

Sounds small and slimy.

They keep them in the classrooms.

Whole rooms made out of glass. Imagine.

I wish I could remember my name

Mummy said it would come in useful.

Like wellies. When there's puddles.

Yellowwellies. I wish she was here.

I think my name is sewn on somewhere

Perhaps the teacher will read it for me.

Tea-cher. The one who makes the tea.

Have a Good week whatever your at ! Go for it ! G.J.
