The Loop system is to be had anywhere at the back of the church. Try it and let us know what you think.

New Altar Servers: We will shortly be recruiting Altar Servers for our Parish Church.

We invite boys and girls who have made their First Communion, to join our wonderful bunch of servers. It doesn't matter what school is attended or where the family live. Claire Hynes will once again co-ordinate the venture for us. Info from Sacristy or Parish Office.

A huge thank you to our "retiring servers" and to our "senior servers" who have been so faithful and who have added so much to the Liturgy over the past year. Thanks too to their Moms and Dads who have "run

I was thinking !

Dear Fellow Traveller,

While we can relate to the joy in finding a €50 note in an old pants we took out we might also remember the joy in letting go of old stuff that weighs us down. Like the parable a good story can often explain things better.

“On the last day of class teacher walked up on stage to teach one final lesson, which she called “a vital lesson on the power of perspective and mindset.” As she raised a glass of water over her head, everyone expected her to mention the typical “glass half empty or glass half full” metaphor. Instead, with a smile on her face, our professor asked, “How heavy is this glass of water I’m holding?” Students shouted out answers ranging from a couple of ounces to a couple of pounds.

After a few moments of fielding answers and nodding her head, she replied, “From my perspective, the absolute weight of this glass is irrelevant. It all depends on how long I hold it. If I hold it for a minute or two, it’s fairly light. If I hold it for an hour straight, its weight might make my arm ache. If I hold it for a day straight, my arm will likely cramp up and feel completely numb and paralyzed, forcing me to drop the glass to the floor. In each case, the absolute weight of the glass doesn’t change, but the longer I hold it, the heavier it feels to me.”

As most of us students nodded our heads in agreement, she continued. “Your worries, frustrations, disappointments, and stressful thoughts are very much like this glass of water. Think about them for a little while and nothing drastic happens. Think about them a bit longer and you begin to feel noticeable pain. Think about them all day long, and you will feel completely numb and paralyzed, incapable of doing anything else until you drop them.”

Have a Wonder-full week
