SCATTERED THOUGHTS !

A group of frogs were traveling through the woods, and two of them fell into a deep pit. When the other frogs saw how deep the pit was, they told the two frogs that they were as good as dead. The two frogs ignored the comments and tried to jump up out of the pit with all their might. The other frogs kept telling them to stop, that they were as good as dead. Finally, one of the frogs took heed to what the other frogs were saying and gave up. He fell down and died. The other frog continued to jump as hard as he could. Once again, the crowd of frogs yelled at him to stop the pain and just die. He jumped even harder and finally made it OUT. When he got out, the other frogs said, "Did you not hear us?" The frog explained to them that he was deaf. He thought they were encouraging him the entire time.

=====

Dear Fellow Traveller,

The old adage that "sticks and stones can break your bones but NAMES will never hurt is not true. Sometimes the tongue can be mightier than the sword! An encouraging word to someone who is down can lift them up and help them make it through the day. A nasty word (whether spoken, written or via "social media" to someone who is down can be very destructive. So we should be careful what we say and speak life to those who CROSS your path. The power of words, it is sometimes hard to understand that an encouraging word can go such a long way.

Have a good Week

G.J.
