CHRIST THE KING PARISH — A FAMILY OF FAMILIES

Our Parish in Action

New Parish email. Please use our new email “salthill@parishes.galwaydiocese.ie”. The old “eir/eircom” email is no longer in use.

Parish Finance : Like many parishes, our income from our weekly collections has reduced considerably as a result of COVID-19. Present Covit restrictions mean that attendance at Mass for instance is only about one quarter of pre Covid days. To all of you who have continued to contribute regularly, we are truly grateful. Donations to the Parish can be given at the boxes provided at each church door or through the donation box near the Sacred Heart shrine, or Parish Office or direct via regular direct debit. Big Thank You to all who contribute and help the parish to pay it’s Bills. Working together and supporting each other we can achieve a Lot.

Home visits: The priests of the parish are available to visit parishioners who are not going out much at present and who might like Holy Communion at home. Call the Office to arrange a suitable day and time.

Salthill Parish is committed to the protection of all children and young people in our Church.
See notice boards for contact persons.

I was Thinking !

Dear Fellow Traveller

In 1994 golfer Davis Love III called a one stroke penalty on himself during the second round of the Western Open Golf Competition. He moved his marker to get it out of another player's putting line and later gave himself an extra stroke, and that one stroke caused him to miss the cut. He was eliminated from the tournament, (ironically, if he'd made the cut, even if he finished last he'd have earned 2,000 dollars that week) At year's end Love was $590 dollars short in winnings to automatically qualify for the Masters and needed to win a tournament in order to get into one of golf's most coveted events. Fortunately, the story ends well. The week before the big event he qualified by winning a tournament in New Orleans, and went on to earn $237,600 dollars by finishing second in the 1995 Masters. Later when David Love was asked how he'd have felt if he'd missed the Masters because of calling a penalty on himself, he replied, 'The real question is how I'd have felt if I'd won and spent the rest of my life wondering if I'd cheated.'

As the man said, it's easier to maintain your integrity than to try and recover it. St. Paul instructed Timothy: 'In everything set an example by doing what is good...show integrity...and soundness of speech that cannot be condemned, so that those who oppose you may be ashamed because they have nothing bad to say' (Titus 2: 7-8) It may cost us to do the right thing, but it'll cost us more when we abandon our principles and do the wrong thing. Honesty and integrity were two qualities vital to a decent society. God bless my good mother who made us wash our mouth with soap if we infringed in this area.

Response to the Psalm at Mass:

Covid restrictions do not permit us to print a leaflet with the readings on it. This week the response to the Psalm (when read) is:

“If today you hear his voice! Harden not your hearts”.

Cemetery Sunday for Ragoon — on 13th September

There will only be a live-stream via <http://studiorove.ie/graveyardmass>

Season of Creation begins Tuesday September 1st “God of all life, we give thanks for the gift of the earth, our common home. At this time, many people, the oceans, and the eco-systems of the earth are struggling to survive. Help us to change our ways and guide us to live a life which is not centred exclusively on ourselves but on the needs of others and worship of you as our ultimate concern”.

The Pope has declared September “a Season of Creation” beginning on Tuesday September 1st “God of all life, we give thanks for the gift of the earth, our common home”. At this time, many people, the oceans, and the eco-systems of the earth are struggling to survive. Help us to change our ways and guide us to live a life which is not centred exclusively on ourselves but on the needs of others and worship of you as our ultimate concern”.
