I was Thinking. !

Dear Fellow Traveller,

I hope you had a good week and are fit and well. Happiness is essentially not “what you have got” but how we deal with what we have got. This week we welcome Spring, there is a stretch in the evenings and while not great, the weather is improving, the earth is warming up, allowing the daffodils to push their little heads out into the light. During the winter with the darkness, and the weather and the Covid lockdown and all that, life was to my mind a matter of “Survival”. Now I hope we can think about getting out and about and going into “Thriving” mode.

The big news this week is that “the Salthill Church Choir” is back in action. Despite current government lock-down regulations, the members of the choir met to last Thursday evening singing their little hearts out, giving “Glory and Praise to God” !

The “Starlings” are back in their hundreds meeting at the church spire at dusk on fine evenings. Where they live or what they do the rest of the time I haven’t a clue, but it is good to hear their melodious chirping again. Hopefully this group of “madrigals” will be followed by their cousins of the Human variety in the not too distant future. ! I notice too that our feathered friends have also begun rehearsals for the Annual “Dawn Chorus”. A great sign of Hope and a reminder to us to get moving. !

We are told many times that we are living in “unprecedented times” and we are inclined to agree. The way the Covid pandemic has upset the world is unreal. Yet in 1942 in the book “Screwtape Letters” the author of “Narnia” books among others, C.S.Lewis wrote of a confrontation between the Devil and Jesus in the following way: He may have been prophetic !

Satan: “I will cause anxiety, fear and panic. I will shut down business, schools, places of worship, and sports events. I will cause economic turmoil”.

Jesus: “I will bring together neighbours, restore the family unit, I will bring dinner back to the kitchen table. I will help people to slow down their lives and discover what really matters. I will teach my children to rely on me and not on the world. I will teach my children to trust in me and not on money or on material resources.”.

Each generation must live in its “Own Time” and with its “Own Lights”. Jesus has shown us the way. We get on with it as best we can — one day at a time.

Have a good week
